UM OFFERS GRANT-WRITING WORKSHOP IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA—

Educators, representatives of government agencies and nonprofit organizations and others interested in learning or improving grant-writing skills are invited to attend a workshop in Missoula sponsored by The University of Montana Wednesday through Friday, Jan. 15-17.

"The Art of Successful Grant Writing" will run from 1 to 5 p.m. Jan. 15, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Jan. 16 and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Jan. 17 in Room 108 of UM's Gallagher Business Building.

Leading the workshop will be UM Adjunct Research Professor Rick Offner, who has garnered more than $30 million in grant and contract awards in the past 15 years. The grant-writing approach Offner teaches is one he has found useful in planning and organizing his successful grant proposals.

Participants will learn how to write a needs statement, develop a work plan, produce and justify a sound budget and much more.

The workshop will cost $175 and include a workbook. When five or more people from an organization register, the cost drops to $150 a person.

To register or get more information, call UM's Center for Continuing Education at 243-2164.
